"We appreciate your help in motivating and inspiring our nurses, students, executives, and attendees. You kept everyone engaged by your honesty and personable approach. Your presentation built a bridge between the IOM recommendations and nursing bedside reality. Ninety-five percent of attendees stated that this would change their nursing practice."

Joseph Berumen, DNP, MS, RN, CCRN-K

Ulondia Lee, MSN, RN, CNEP

Jennifer West, MBA, RN, BSN

Initiative on the Future of Nursing, South Texas Team Co-Leads

"Our community of nurses and nurse leaders were inspired by your talk and fortunate to have the opportunity to hear you speak at University of Central Florida. Your presentation and presence on campus has truly raised the bar for us to find next year's speaker. Your standing ovation will be hard to beat!"

Mary Lou Sole, PhD, RN, CCNS, CNL, FAAN, FCCM

Dean and Professor, Orlando Health Endowed Chair in Nursing

"I just want to thank you for delivering such an inspiring talk at the Governor's Conference for Women. You were engaging and humorous, but your biggest strength was your message. It was powerful and honest—words that can only be spoken by someone who has lived to tell the story. Thanks for being a beacon of light!"

Michelle Maccia, Conference Attendee

"Thank you, thank you and thank you for the joy you brought to so many. Verbal feedback was extremely positive and the written evaluations certainly confirm that with numerous positive comments like "she is great," "excellent speaker," "love her," "great catch," "inspirational," "very fun and energetic," and "thoroughly enjoyed this speaker," just to cite a few. The planning team and I are just thrilled with how everything went so smoothly."

Kenn M. Kirksey, PhD, RN, ACNS-BC, FAAN

Director, The Center for Nursing Research, SETON Family of Hospitals

"Your ability to identify the struggles and challenges we are all facing in healthcare, and share realistic approaches to help us deal with these challenges, was really quite amazing! You have been able to give us clear guidance in navigating our future with many issues, including those of the heart. Thank you for your time, good humor, warmth, and professionalism."

Phyllis Capiaghi, MAS, BSN, RN-BC

Patient Care Director Behavioral Health, Englewood Hospital and Medical Center

"Thank you for bringing your energy, expertise, and power to our nurses, at the NCNA convention."
